1. Alex Iskandar Rutowski (Course Coordinator)
UVW119/2  KOREAN I

Course synopsis:

This course is designed for beginners with no prior knowledge of Korean. It introduces students to the Korean language and covers reading and writing of the Hangul script as well as pronunciation. Starting with greetings, the course proceeds to develop communication through basic grammar, vocabulary and reading skills for simple sentences. Students will develop the four skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing in an interactive and integrated manner through theme-based activities that relate to daily life.

Prerequisite:

Students who register MUST NOT have any formal qualifications in the language at PMR/SPM level; and MUST NOT have followed any education system which uses the language as the medium of instruction.

UVW219/2  KOREAN II

Course synopsis:

In this course, students will become more familiar with the morphology of spoken and written Korean. Students will further develop their proficiency in the skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing. These skills will be taught in an interactive and integrated manner through theme-based activities related to everyday life. The course will also enable students to acquire more accurate pronunciation and articulation of Korean words and sentence patterns. By the end of the course, they will have a better understanding of Korean lifestyle and culture and they will be able to use Korean in a variety of social contexts.

Prerequisite:

Passed Korean I with minimum grade C.

UVW319/2 KOREAN III

Course synopsis:

This course aims to expand students’ language skills by introducing more complex sentence structures, colloquial expressions in different cultural contexts. Classroom tasks in this course naturally demand a higher level of participation and hence incorporate learning through the use of audio-visual materials and class discussion. This course will introduce students to basic business Korean use and culture behavior in dealing business with people from Korea.

Prerequisite:

Passed Korean II with minimum grade C.

UVW419/ 2 KOREAN IV

Course synopsis:

Students are introduced to more complex grammatical forms and sentence structures as compared to level I, II and III. Classroom tasks in this course would demand a higher level of participation and allow students opportunities to express themselves using the language. Students are exposed to use the language in different authentic contexts that they would encounter in their future workplace.

Prerequisite:

Passed Korean III with minimum grade C.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

a) For students who have to take all UVA111, UVW211 and UVW312/ UVW313, the courses have to be taken in the order that is indicated in the table above (from left to right). UVA111 is a prerequisite to UVW211, and UVW211 is a prerequisite to UVW312/ UVW313. You may take one foreign language course of your choice, subject to your schedule and availability of seats.

b) For students who have to take UVW211 and UVW312/ UVW313, the course UVW211 has to be taken BEFORE UVW312/ UVW313. You may take one foreign language course of your choice, subject to your schedule and availability of seats.

c) For students who have to take only UVW312/ UVW313, you will need to also take ONE foreign language course as per your curriculum structure.
IMPORTANT REMINDERS

1. Students are required to register for ALL language courses according to their respective programme curriculum structure.

2. Students who do not register for the language course they need to take in a particular semester as stipulated in their programme curriculum structure may face difficulties when registering in the following semesters. They may also run the risk of having to delay graduation.

3. Priority in registration is given to students who follow their programme curriculum structure.

4. Registration is confirmed once students register for language courses in the university system. (If students were to attend classes but they have not registered in the university system, they are considered as NOT REGISTERED.)

5. Students need to take note of the prerequisites for all the courses they wish to register for. e.g. Pass with grade C, must not have any formal qualifications in the language, etc.

6. Students’ registration for all foreign language courses level 100 (e.g. Mandarin I, Thai I, Arabic I, Japanese I, German I, etc.) is managed by CIL. Students MUST fulfil the requirements/prerequisites of the courses in order to get themselves registered.
